

Newsletter No. 2.11.87 Week 4

Dear Parents,

The Schools Spectacular was a spectacular indeed, and on centre stage were the Oatley West Kewpie Dolls. They looked great. Well done, everyone concerned, especially miss Large. She not only prepared and at the last minute performed in our items, but was also Assistant Director of Movement for the whole show.

Well done, also, to the school band playing at the Lions Fete on Saturday, and to the choir. Mrs Wilson and Mrs Willis took the choir to a rehearsal at the Opera House. I heard that the children were very well-behaved and were complimented on their uniforms. The Red Cross group who visited the city for a concert with Mrs Fellows were also well behaved and enjoyed their visit.

The family Bush Dance was great fun and a fitting way to celebrate the fortieth anniversary of the school. The cutting of the birthday cake was memorable. Thank you to the organisers, particularly Helen Rossiter for doing such a good job. The celebration continues with our Back to 1947 Mufti Day tomorrow.

UNIFORM SHOP.

On roster this week, Margaret Parncutt & Rhonda Orr, 2.45 - 3.45 Wednesday.

A full Uniform Shop report is being tabled at P & C this Tuesday evening as it is my last official week as co-ordinator. Rhonda Chapman, Sue Bell and Roslyn Smith are taking over the running of the shop now so that the 'new mums' will be familiar with who the organisers are. I cannot thank the following ladies too much, they have done a superb job with absolutely no fuss and have been 100% reliable.

Elizabeth Roberts, Margaret Parncutt, Leonie Boon, Rhonda Orr, Sue Bell, Rhonda Chapman, Maria Kinces, Jean Burg, Kathy Bryant, Wendy Negroh, Vicki Drummond and Gae Law.

I hope all of the above will continue to be 'shopkeepers' and that we will hear from anyone else that is interested in helping out once a month for 1 hour in the shop. Please contact Rhonda or Sue by putting your name and childs class on an envelope and marking it 'Uniform Shop' and leaving it at the office.

The full report will be printed in next weeks newsletter.

Helen Grocott.
